In Delhi, Deena arrived at the school ground early for the annual sports meet. A cool breeze moved across the field as white lines marked each running track. Near the gate, colourful flags hung from a tall _____ that stood beside the entrance. Children from different classes gathered near the _____ where teachers organised teams. Deena stretched her arms and legs, feeling both nervous and _____ before her race. On one side, a group practised relay while another group set up a long _____ for the high jump. Parents sat under a large _____ to watch the events in comfort. When the whistle blew, runners _____ down the track as friends clapped and shouted encouragement. At the finish line, a teacher placed a shining _____ around each winner's neck. Near the refreshment table, volunteers filled cups with cool _____ for the tired children. Later, Deena and her friends shared a simple _____ near the boundary wall and talked about their favourite moments. As the sun softened, the sky turned a gentle _____ colour, and Deena walked home, already planning how she would describe the day in her notebook.
