

Active vs. Passive Voice (Intro)

Grade 5

Active Vs. Passive Voice text

Active: see(s)/clean(s), etc.

Passive : am/is/are seen/cleaned, etc.

Created by - Banani Garai

Read each sentence and write whether it is in active or passive voice.

1. The dog chased the cat.

2. The cake was baked by my grandmother.

3. The teacher gave the student homework.

4. The song was sung by the choir.

5. The boys played soccer in the park.

6. The letter was written by Emily.

7. The sun shines brightly.

Change the sentences from active to passive voice.

1. The chef cooks delicious meals.

2. The children read the book.

3. The artist creates stunning murals.

4. The students solve the math problems.

5. My sister plays the violin beautifully.

Change the sentences from passive to active voice.

1. Movies are directed by Mani Ratnam.

2. The homework is completed by the students.

3. The treasure is found by the explorers.

4. The song is played by the band at concerts.

5. The pictures are painted by a famous artist.

Transform each sentence to the other voice.

1. The chef prepares the meal.

2. The room is cleaned by the janitor.

3. The gardener waters the plants daily.

4. The librarian organizes the books.

5. The homework is checked by the teacher.

Creative Writing

Write 6 sentences about your favourite food:

- 3 sentences in active voice.
- 3 sentences in passive voice.

My Favourite Food (Active Voice)My Favourite Food (Passive Voice)