

Grade 5

Prefixes are added to the beginning of a word to change its meaning.

un-, re-, dis-, pre-, mis-

Created by - Banani Garai

Name:

Exercise 1

Add the prefix "un-" to each of the following words to create new words.

Word	Prefix+Word= New Word
happy
kind known fair
tie lucky
happy
believe

Add the prefix "re-" to each of the following words to create new words.

Word	Prefix+Word= New Word
write play build read
do charge
cycle
paint

Fill in the blanks by adding the prefix "dis-" to the word given in the brackets.

1. The magician was able to _____ (appear) in front of the audience.

2. Many children _____ (like) eating vegetables.

3. Please do not _____ (connect) the wires.

4. It is wrong to be _____ (honest)
when playing a game.

5. The class had to _____ (continue) the drawing activity when the bell rang.

Write the new word formed by adding the prefix "pre-" to the words provided.

Bonus : Learn the meaning given

Word	'Pre' + Word	Meaning of new word
Heat		To heat something beforehand
School		Nursery school
View		View something before it is officially released
History		The Stone Age
Cook		Cook in advance
Paid		Paid in advance

Fill in the blanks with the correct word formed using the prefix "mis-."

1. Do not _____ (use) the new mobile phone.
2. The student began to _____ (behave) in the class.
3. I always _____ (place) my homework sheets.
4. He made a big _____ (take) in the test.
5. The child was full of _____ (chief) and played many tricks.